PURPOSE AND OUTCOMES

Course Overview

This course provides an overview of the U.S. healthcare system and the health workforce. Specifically, this course will examine issues affecting healthcare delivery including social determinants of health, healthcare reform, and healthcare insurance. This course will also explore the roles and educational requirements of physicians, dentists, nurses, occupational therapists, and other allied health professionals. The course emphasis is to establish a solid foundation of professional characteristics, behaviors, values, skills, and knowledge for students to build upon in their healthcare careers.

Course Objectives and Competencies

Upon successful completion of the course, students will be able to:

- Describe the roles and responsibilities of various healthcare professionals within the current healthcare delivery system
- Describe the US healthcare system and the insurance industry's role in financing healthcare
- Describe the relationship between public health and healthcare
- Identify various health inequities and health disparities found within the US
- Identify personal traits and attitudes desirable in healthcare team members
- List prerequisite coursework and other requirements needed to fulfill the requirements for various graduate/professional programs in the health professions

Instructional Methods

The course is housed in Canvas, a UF e-Learning platform. This course uses face-to-face instruction to maximize learning. All course material is delivered using a combination of video recording, including guest lectures and invited health professional presentations, as well as assigned readings, videos, and class discussion. Regular class attendance, presence, and engagement are absolutely critical to be successful in this course and it is also what makes this class useful for you. While course readings and class presentations are posted on Canvas, understanding the material requires active participation in class and group discussions, and detailed note taking.

This class meets once per week and you are expected to attend and actively engage in the course throughout the term. You must come to class prepared by completing all out-of-class requirements prior to class. This preparation gives you the knowledge needed to engage in higher levels of learning during the in-class sessions. You are expected to actively participate in the session, which fosters a rich course experience for you and your peers that facilitates overall mastery of the course objectives.

COURSE MATERIALS AND TECHNOLOGY

Course Material

Each week, students will be assigned various articles, recorded lectures, webpages, videos, etc. that they must read/watch prior to class. All course material will be made available on the Canvas website at least 1 week prior to class. Within class, we will use recorded/live presentations from various health professionals, class discussion, small group work, and activities to promote further understanding of class topics.

Technology

Required Equipment: Computer with high-speed internet access and use of a supported browser (Google Chrome recommended). Additionally, all students will be required to have a webcam and microphone to participate during the Zoom class times (if we cannot meet face to face). ACADEMIC REQUIREMENTS AND GRADING

Quizzes (50% of final grade)

Each week, students will complete a 10 question, multiple choice quiz to assess their understanding and retention of the material. Quizzes will be open for 15 minutes during class time, and students complete the quiz on Canvas (or paper-based version if requested). Students must be present in class to take the quiz and are not permitted to use source material, notes, classmates, online resources, or aids of any kind while taking a quiz. This is how your attendance will be counted. A total of 12 quizzes will be administered with the 2 lowest quiz grades being automatically dropped. Only students with excused absences (see Make-Up Policy below) will be allowed to make-up a quiz.

Professional Development Assignments (50% of final grade)

Throughout the semester, students will complete 3 professional development assignments with the goal of solidifying their professional identity. For Assignment 1, students can explore various organizations related to their chosen profession and research requirements, etc. (15%) For Assignment 2, students will seek out potential graduate programs and identify the prerequisite coursework and additional requirements necessary to be eligible for said programs. (20%) For assignment 3, students will complete a career exploration assignment. (15%) Additional details for each assignment is provided on Canvas.

Class Discussion

For weeks 2-15, students will participate in a class discussion regarding that week's topic.

An optional reflection paper will be available for students wishing to earn extra credit. The paper will be a minimum of 1,000 words, 12 pt. Arial font, double-spaced. A maximum of 3 points can be achieved for completing the extra credit paper.

CLASS POLICIES

Make-Up Work Policy

Make-ups may be granted based upon the following circumstances: (a) illness, (b) serious family emergencies, (c) military obligation, (d) religious holidays, (e) participation in official university activities, or (f) court-imposed legal obligations. For circumstances a. and b., students must contact the faculty via email within 48 hours of the missed quiz/assignment, and the faculty may request the student provide medical or other forms of documentation to validate the make-up.

For all other circumstances, students must contact the faculty at least 3 days prior to the anticipated missed day and provide reasonable documentation confirming the obligation/activity. Note: circumstances c. through f. only apply to missed quizzes, not assignments. Assignments are published at the beginning of the class and therefore students have ample time to complete assignments around anticipated obligations/activities.

Missed quizzes/assignments due to severe weather or poor internet connectivity will be reviewed on a case by case basis. If you are unable to access consistent internet, please email the instructor ahead of time (if possible); otherwise email the instructor at the earliest time possible.

Recording Policy

Students are allowed to record video or audio of class lectures. However, the purposes for which these recordings may be used are strictly controlled. The only allowable purposes are (1) for personal educational use, (2) in connection with a complaint to the university, or (3) as evidence in, or in preparation for, a criminal or civil proceeding. All other purposes are prohibited. Specifically, students may not publish recorded lectures without the written consent of the instructor.

A “class lecture” is an educational presentation intended to inform or teach enrolled students about a particular subject, including any instructor-led discussions that form part of the presentation, and delivered by any instructor hired or appointed by the University, or by a guest instructor, as part of a University of Florida course. A class lecture does not include lab sessions, student presentations, clinical presentations such as patient history, academic exercises involving solely student participation, assessments (quizzes, tests, exams), field trips, private conversations between students in the class or between a student and the faculty or lecturer during a class session.

Publication without permission of the instructor is prohibited. To “publish” means to share, transmit, circulate, distribute, or provide access to a recording, regardless of format or medium, to another person (or persons), including but not limited to another student within the same class section. Additionally, a recording, or transcript of a recording, is considered published if it is posted on or uploaded to, in whole or in part, any media platform, including but not limited to social media, book, magazine, newspaper, leaflet, or third party note/tutoring services. A student who publishes a recording without written consent may be subject to a civil cause of action instituted by a person injured by the publication and/or discipline under UF Regulation 4.040 Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code.

Late Submission Policy

Late submissions for Professional Development Assignments will be accepted for up to 48 hours after the original deadline, and graded for a maximum of half credit. Assignments submitted after the 48 hour window will not be accepted (unless excused) and the student will earn a 0.

It is your responsibility to check that the correct assignment has been submitted to Canvas on time. If you submit the wrong assignment, Canvas allows you to resubmit the correct assignment before the deadline. Submitting an assignment even 1 minute after the time it is due will be considered late – please do not wait to complete and submit your assignments.

Collaboration Policy

Unless otherwise stated explicitly by written instructions, the preparation of all coursework should be done individually. If you are unsure about what level of collaboration is appropriate, ask the instructor before beginning any graded assignment.

Policy Related to Guests Attending Class

Only registered students are permitted to attend class. However, we recognize that students who are caretakers may face occasional unexpected challenges creating attendance barriers. Therefore, by exception, a department chair or his or her designee (e.g., instructors) may grant a student permission to bring a guest(s) for a total of two class sessions per semester. This is two sessions total across all courses. No further extensions will be granted. Students are responsible for course material regardless of attendance. For additional information, please review the Classroom Guests of Students policy: <http://facstaff.php.ufl.edu/services/resourceguide/getstarted.htm>

INCLUSIVE LEARNING ENVIRONMENT

Public health and health professions are based on the belief in human dignity and on respect for the individual. As we share our personal beliefs inside or outside of the classroom, it is always with the understanding that we value and respect diversity of background, experience, and opinion, where every individual feels valued. We believe in, and promote, openness and tolerance of differences in ethnicity and culture, and we respect differing personal, spiritual, religious and political values. We further believe that celebrating such diversity enriches the quality of the educational experiences we provide our students and enhances our own personal and professional relationships. We embrace The University of Florida's Non-Discrimination Policy, which reads, "The University shall actively promote equal opportunity policies and practices conforming to laws against discrimination.

The University is committed to non-discrimination with respect to race, creed, color, religion, age, disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, marital status, national origin, political opinions or affiliations, genetic information and veteran status as protected under the Vietnam Era Veterans' Readjustment Assistance Act."
